 Stage 1
 in a winner
 of 44*

The Tour da Chicago is a series of alleycats that will take place at 8:30 am Sunday morning on Jan. 22, Jan. 29, Feb. 12 and Feb. 26, with the final stage on Saturday night March 11 at 8:30 pm. Riders from each stage will receive prizes and all finishers will receive points in the final standings. Riders need not compete in all stages to qualify in the final standings. Prizes include Tour Champion, Women's Champion, Fixed Gear Champion, and a full of races (each stage is different), and have fun!

This year the tour is going back 2 basics. All stages (except the Stairmaster on March 11 and the Scavenger Hunt on Feb. 12) will be routes from the first three years of the tour. The race on January 22nd was first ridden on November 14, 1999 with Jason Pyrzynski recording the fastest time.

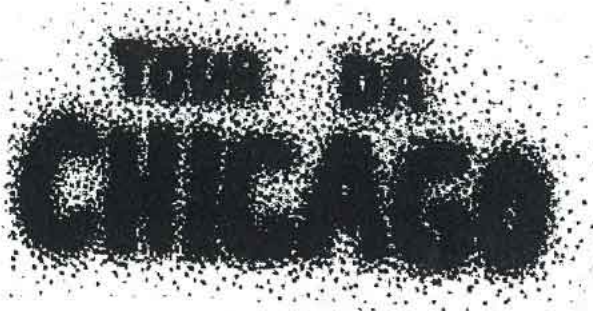

... at 7:30 pm. Top

How much: 5 bucks
Why: Glory...and prizes... and maybe pancakes

STAGE 1: YE ELSTON KNIFE
(or a couple of old Indian trails)

Gather at 500 W. Madison (in first floor food court). Start Fulton and Des Plaines, N on Des Plaines, NW on Milwaukee until it reconnects with Elston (just S of Niles). TIGHT RIGHT. SE on Elston, merge w/ Milwaukee (before Chicago), S on Des Plaines, E on Washington, finish under tracks at bike racks between Clinton and Canal.

As always, you are responsible for racing safely. Helmets, brakes, and sobriety are not required, but are always recommended.
